Chords: F Am G F Am G

Chords: F Am G F Am G

Her hair is Har-low gold, —
She'll let you take her home, —

Chords: F G C

her lips sweet sur-prise, — Her hands are nev-er cold —
it whets her ap-pe-tite, — She'll lay you on her throne —

[5] The single also reached the number 5 in the Billboard top tracks and the number 26 in the Dance charts. [6] It was also a success in the 1 in 21 pans [7] and reached the number 10 in the UK, [8] at the top 40 success in that Paäs. He also reached the number 2 in the Canadian for twelve consecutive weeks, and it was the 1981 Successful Member 2 in that paäs after "Stars on 45". [9] [10] The capacity won the Grammy Awards by Song of the Year and Record of the Year, also was in the number 12 on the Billboard list of the 100 best cannations in the first 50 years of Billboard Hot 100. [11] Clean Records launched a rewriting of the case as a single in 2007. This song is written in the key of F Major. [12] Davis bet in 1935 the cannon was written in 1974 by Donna Weiss and Jackie Deshannon, who recorded the same year in her year in her new arrangement. [13] In this original incarnation, the track is executed in an arrangement of 'R&B Lite', [1] presenting a prominent part of piano uptempo, as well as pedal and horns guitar flowers. [14] However, it was not the sabbath of 1981, [15] when Kim Meats recorded his version of the capacity in a radically different synthesizer -based arrangement that "Bette Davis Eyes" became a commercial success. According to producer Val Garay, the original mother demo that was brought to him sounded "a track of Leon Russell, with this part of a beer barrel polka piano." The demo can be heard in an interview Val Garay on TV Taxi ä s 21:50. [16] Keyboardist Bill Cuomo came up with the subscription synthesizer using the Sequential Circuits Prophet-5 synthesizer, which now defines meat versions. The time was recorded in the state of the first take. [17] Actress Bette Davis was 73 years old when Kim Meat's version became a success. She wrote letters for meat, Weiss and Deshannon to thank all for making it "a part of modern times" stated that her grandson now looked at her. After his Grammy win, Davis sent them roses as well.
