Structure! The direct deposits make receiving a payment more easy! I have nothing negative to say. It is a great company to work! 1 person found this a ostile review. 28, 2017 - Distributor in Boston, Maprosi has been a K & B dealer for some time. I went full time during the Sumer of 2012. The office at home leaves you alone. Unless you need your help. It is an opportunity based on the commission. You want $$ if you sell something. For me, I close 3 to 6 orders per week or more. You are a payment within 24-48 hours. I also departed to your bank account. If he likes to work from home and is a getter, this could be something to consider. Consumption is not for everyone. If you want a constant payment check from the beginning, this may not work. It will take time to build a business book. Business is more than 12 years old was in a "raffle" (an advance against future sales) would discover that it did not work for me. One night I was looking at the "network" and I found K&B. When I saw that they paid all the days, call a distributor to discuss this in depth and register at that time. The registration also takes me to another program that k & b offers - subcontracts. K & B will pay him while the concessionaire remains in the business and annuls. If a dealership that makes six figures (that is not a printing mistake). Once you have sold $ 150,000, it becomes a Century Club dealership. What this means for you is: free samples (up to $ 10,00) Commission rate of 65%, to appoint some of the benefits, there is also no contract to sign (a company will submit a 20 -paper contract to review before registering). You can sell so little or as much as you want. Conskaeser & Blair is something "meat and potatoes" what that means for you while offering a good back support -end, still does many things on your own. This is also true for many pp companies. Kaeser also offers an excellent F/B website to get answers to many questions goes up. In addition, if you register under a dealership, you will generally have an excellent mentor available to help your progress. a lot of work in a person for what they are paid. Compavament lacks training and communication. Senior management is horrible. They do not verify all their facts before reaching conclusions. Many distributors are suspended for long time. Great business opportunity to start and grow your own business, without any of the usual limitations. It is not a company marketing marketing, selling lotions, potions and false hopes: it is a genuine opportunity to sell personalized printed products and clothes that carry the name, logo and the buyer's message to its employees, customers and// /// or perspectives.
